

Respect
Victoria

Preventing Family Violence

Respect Women

Respect Victoria

Easy English

Hard words

This book has some hard words.

The first time we write a hard word

- the word is in blue
- we write what the hard word means.

You can get help with this book

You can get someone to help you

- read this book
- know what this book is about
- find more information.

We will write contact information at the end of this book.

About this book

This book is from Respect Victoria.

This book is about our Respect Women campaign.

A campaign is when people and organisations work together to reach a goal.

The goal of our campaign is to help men to think about how they can respect women.

Respect means we understand that

- everyone is important
- we should be kind to everyone
- we should not hurt other people.

Everyone should have the same rights.

Rights are things that everyone should be able to

- get

- have

- do.

When women are not respected they do not have the same rights as everyone else.

Women might not be respected

- in the community

- at work.

Ways women might not be respected in the community include when a man

- stares at a woman and she is not comfortable

- says women are not good at sport or other activities

- says mean things to his wife or girlfriend.

Ways women might not be respected at work include when a man

- thinks a woman cannot do things because she is a woman

- makes sexual jokes about women

- expects women to clean the work area if it is not their job.

If you see someone is not being respected

If you see someone is not being respected it is important to say something.

Only say something if

- it is safe for you

- it is safe for the woman who is not being respected.

When women are not respected it can lead to violence.

Violence means someone hurts

- you
- someone else.

Violence can be

- physical
 - For example someone hits you.

- verbal
 - For example someone says things that make you feel bad or afraid.

Saying something when you see a woman is not being respected could stop violence against women.

To stop men who do not respect women you can

- frown or give them a look to show you are not happy

- tell them you do not agree with what they said.

To stop men who do not respect women you could also

- not respond to mean comments

- not laugh at mean jokes about women

- tell the person in private that what they said is not okay.

In private means in a way that other people cannot

- see what you are saying

- hear what you are saying.

Get help if you are not respected

If you or someone else is in danger right now

- call 000

- ask for the police.

There are places to get help

- if someone is not being respected

- for violence.

There is more information at the end of this book.

Places to get help

Safe Steps helps people in Victoria who are experiencing violence.

Call 1800 015 188

Website safesteps.org.au

In Touch Multicultural Centre Against Family Violence (In Touch) helps people from different cultures who are experiencing violence.

Call 1800 755 988

Website intouch.org.au

No To Violence helps men who use violence.

Call 1300 766 491

Website ntv.org.au

More information

For more information about the Respect Women campaign contact Respect Victoria.

Website

respectvictoria.vic.gov.au

Email

contact@respectvictoria.vic.gov.au

If you do not speak English

Use the free Translating and Interpreting Service or TIS.

Call 131 450

Give the TIS officer the phone number you want to call.

If you need help to speak or listen

Use the National Relay Service.

Website

infrastructure.gov.au/national-relay-service

Call 1800 555 660

Give the relay officer the phone number you want to call.

[illegible]

Notes

[illegible]

[illegible]

This Easy English document was created by Scope (Aust) Ltd. in December, 2022 using Picture Communication Symbols (PCS). PCS is a trademark of Tobii Dynavox, LLC. All rights reserved. Used with permission. This document must not be sold to third parties. The images must not be reused without permission. For more information about the images, contact Scope on 1300 472 673 or visit scopeaust.org.au